

Chinese-Indonesian Martial Arts Seminar with Mr. Joe Salomone

On Saturday, May 1st, Mr. Joe Salomone will be sharing this unique blend of Southern Chinese Gung Fu and Indonesian Pentjak Silat that was taught by Grandmaster Willem Reeder (Liu Seong). Mr. Salomone began his training in these internal self-defense arts in 1973 under the late Grandmaster Art Sikes. To further enhance his knowledge, he became an amateur boxer from 1977 to 1984, using his training in the ring. He was a five time Nevada State Golden Glove and ABF boxing champion, and in 1981, was selected to represent the USA in International Boxing competition while training at the US Olympic Training Center in Colorado. Mr. Salomone earned his Orange Sash in 1980, and his Red Sash in 1994. Martial artists of all levels of experience and styles are welcome at this seminar.

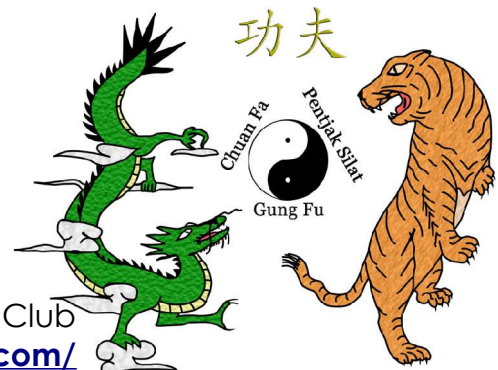

When:
Saturday, May 1st, 2010
11:00 AM – 3:00 PM

Where:
Lee District RECenter
6601 Telegraph Rd
Alexandria, VA

Cost:
$50 / person, paid to Erik Harris at the seminar

For additional info:

Visit <http://www.kungfu-silat.com/>
Contact Erik Harris, erik@kungfu-silat.com

Hosted by The Chinese-Indonesian Martial Arts Club
<http://www.kungfu-silat.com/>